CANDIDATE INFORMATION

Nicole Brown is a trusted community leader, educator, and small business owner committed to expanding opportunity and protecting working families. As an independent agent with Primerica, Nicole helps families prepare for the unexpected through education and financial protection—work rooted in her belief that everyone deserves stability and peace of mind.

Nicole also serves as an educator at Rio Salado College, where she teaches insurance and entrepreneurship, equipping students with real-world skills and empowering the next generation of leaders. With nearly three decades of professional experience, she brings both practical knowledge and a deep understanding of how policy decisions affect everyday lives.

Married to her husband, Yancy, for 28 years, Nicole is a proud dog mom to Jazzy and Callie and a strong believer in community connection. Her civic involvement includes serving as an at-large board member for her legislative district, Vice President of the Arizona CPCU Society, and a member of the Tempe Leadership Council with a focus on youth engagement. She is also actively involved with Leading for Change, a nonprofit dedicated to ensuring equal access to economic, academic, and social opportunities for all.

A lifelong learner and avid reader, Nicole believes the best ideas come from listening first. She loves bringing people together through book clubs and community conversations where different perspectives are welcomed and respected. Nicole is running to make life more affordable for everyone and to support clean energy solutions that make sense for families and our future. She believes strong communities are built when everyone has a seat at the table and a voice that matters.
