

SRP Transmission – Customer Relocation Exhibit

Due to ROW and Easement requirements from the Municipality and SRP respectively, Customers often find themselves in the situation above where only the poles on their property are being relocated – forcing the need to obtain 3rd party easements from neighboring parcels. These easements are often the longest to acquire and can cause significant delay to a project.

- Existing property line
- Existing Transmission Pole
- Proposed Transmission Pole
- Existing Transmission line
- Proposed Transmission line
- 3rd Party Easement Area